1 - It lets you know what service levels are expected to keep customers happy and achieve high satisfaction.

2 - It enables you to focus on fulfilling customer expectations.

3 - It gives you the opportunity to discuss expectations at the start of the relationship and to reset unrealistic expectations if necessary.

4 - It can help you resolve customer complaints. Since complaints are a result of failing to meet expectations, you have the ability to quickly fix the problems and retain the business.

5 - Most customers have a set of basic needs that they want from you; make sure you understand them and work them into your customer service strategy.

6 - Think about not just meeting expectations, but how you can WOW them.

1- There are times when you know we're not going to meet expectations--the deadline is pushed back, something didn't go right, something was missed...whatever it is, I recommend calling the customer immediately!

2- Explain the issue and what steps you're taking to correct it. 90% of the time, the customer just needs to know that you care, that you acknowledge the problem, and that you have a strategy to fix it.

3- You don't need all the answers but you must fully let the client vent, if that's needed, and actively listen. Then cushion, clarify and respond.

4- Send follow up with an action plan and gift/card, then execute!

5- Once you have an understanding of what the customer needs--reach out to other teammates for help.

BONUS TIP - Save all this info in your CRM. Have a plan for gifts and pivot points. Send gifts and exceed expectations just before key difficulty areas.
