Frank's had better days... With a little encouragement from his oldest friend, Stan, the first destination for his 'bucket-list' is the Isle of Man TT Races. They were content to just spectate, but fate had other ideas.

Long way round

The gang are back in the latest book of the feel-good, smash hit comedy 'This is the funniest series of books I've ever read. End-off!' 'You don't need to love bikes or even the Isle of Man TT Races to adore these books. Feel-good brilliance.' 'You'll laugh, you'll cry, you'll smile but, oh my, it'll leave you wanting more. Heartwarming brilliance and has to be made into a film.' Life rarely stands still when you find yourself surrounded by a bunch of loveable crackpots. Certainly, that was the case for Frank and Stan. With their hugely successful 'Le Mans' TT now behind them, thoughts turned to their next adventure and, inevitably, also to the topic of their own mortality. Still, the gang had their first Christmas at the TT Farm to look forward to, and the prospect of entering a team for the next Isle of Man TT races as well. So, on the whole, life was pretty darn good -- and especially so, now that wedding bells could also be heard chiming in the distance. It seemed nothing could dampen their sprits... Until, that is, an old cretinous, cravat-wearing acquaintance appears with an offer they simply cannot refuse, so to speak. Well, they could refuse the offer, of course. But doing so could mean losing all they'd worked so very hard to achieve and leaving them at real risk of having everything come crashing down around their ears. There were certainly strong headwinds facing them, but Team Frank & Stan would never abandon ship and go down without a fight! And, besides, they'd always have Stella on deck, manning the canons!

The gang are back in the latest book of the feel-good, smash-hit comedy -'This is the funniest series of books I've ever read. End-off!' - 'You don't need to love bikes or even the Isle of Man TT Races to adore these books. Feel-good brilliance.' - 'You'll laugh, you'll cry, you'll smile but, oh my, it'll leave you wanting more. Heartwarming brilliance and has to be made into a film.' There's a sense of giddy excitement wafting through the air as the Isle of Man prepares itself for the annual TT races. And Frank and Stan simply cannot wait. Also eager for the action to commence is a couple of American filmmakers hoping to showcase the event to a global audience. One of the crucial ingredients in their plan is to recruit a charismatic, go-getting natural athlete to be the poster boy for their project, titled, Isle of Man TT Aces. How they ended up with Dave Quirk, then, is nothing short of baffling. Still, with Dave on board and signed up, at least they also get Monty thrown in for free. So, every cloud and all that... However, with the prospect of fame and fortune on the table, not everybody is pleased for our new pin-up boys. Indeed, there are even some out there who'll stop at nothing to scupper their onscreen debuts. So, it's lights, camera, and action on the Isle of Man TT Aces, but will Dave and Monty be the ones to actually walk down the red carpet...?

Der goldene Sohn

The Gang is back for another crazy adventure. The idea of the maverick racer, Dave Quirk, winning a TT was as probable as a seaside donkey winning the Grand National... But he'd been trying to do exactly that. An unlikely victory would also secure the TT Farm for Frank and Stan's charity, but it was a crumbling, financial black hole and filled with asbestos. Dave and Monty quitting their jobs to work there wasn't fantastic timing, either. The charity needed a truckload of cash, and fast. They had to go big on their fundraising ideas, so, the Isle of Man - home of the famous TT Races - would play host to a twenty-four-hour racing extravaganza and they'd need a high-profile celebrity for maximum exposure. The object of Stella's darkest desire, Guy Martin, was kidnapped was willing and eager to offer his services for the inaugural Isle 'Le Mans' TT. They were full of good intentions, but, as usual, the path was rarely smooth for Team Frank and Stan. Particularly when romance was also thrown into the mix...

Das Haus des Schwarzen Magiers

Stan's over the moon with his latest purchase: a wheezing old motorhome they've affectionately dubbed The Rust Bucket List. Indeed, even Frank is embracing life in the great outdoors. So much so that the pair of them have cooked up an idea to expand their business empire, inspired by their newfound appreciation of camping. But the news isn't entirely positive on the Isle of Man as Dave Quirk's facing a serious dilemma that could have far-reaching consequences for those closest to him. So, to both put a smile on Dave's face and progress the new business venture, the boys climb aboard their rusting chariot for a road trip through the Scottish Highlands. However, Frank and Stan aren't the only ones eager for a change in their professional lives. Because, as it turns out, Stella also harbours lofty ambitions in that department. The problem with hers, though, is that she hasn't bothered discussing them with her present employers - Frank and Stan. Instead, she opted to sally forth without a care in the world or consideration for those who pay her wages. Still, good times, memories, and adventure were sure to await as the boys head off on their road trip. At least that's the plan because, after all, what's the worst that could happen? Well, quite a lot. Quite a lot indeed...

Cinder & Ella

For somebody so often the life and soul of the party, Dave Quirk is officially a bit down in the dumps. And that's because, after numerous trips to the estate agents, he's realised that with his modest deposit, he might need to moderate his aspirations to something a touch less grandiose. Such as a Wendy house, for example. Still, for now, there's plenty going on to take Dave's mind off such matters. First up, an all-expenses paid trip to the United States to attend the celebratory premiere of the upcoming TV documentary series, Isle of Man TT Aces, in which Dave will be prominently featured. Along with Monty, Frank, and Stan, our boys were proving themselves to be, quite possibly, the most unlikely stars to ever be gracing the small screen. That is, if their ardent and ever-increasing American fanbase was anything to go by. In fact, viewers simply could not wait to see them! And it's over there in the good old US of A that an opportunity to bolster Dave's bank balance presents itself. However, in doing so, the gang are pitted against a previous and particularly irritating foe in the process. So, it's passports at the ready, because the gang are off to Las Vegas, baby! Oh, and if our intrepid quartet were making their way to Sin City, then, according to Stella, there wasn't a snowball in hell's chance that she wasn't also coming along for a jolly...

The story revolves around the hunt for Paul Leonard, the man responsible for the death of Stanley Colton's mother and father, Jack and Samantha Colton and his younger sister, Ashley. Jack was a detective as well as a hitman of an underground elite to stabilize the prison, as well as the country's population by eliminating murderers and rapists. This elite was started by high court judge, Judge Roberts. Jack and the rest of the family are murdered by Paul Leonard. Paul Leonard was a cop also set up as a hitman by Judge Roberts, who took advantage of this elite, creating a mob army to racketeer and make money off of weapons and drug smuggling. Jack Colton was the last to try and eliminate Paul as he had already killed all the families in association with the elite. Roberts gave Paul the idea of who the families were that tried to eliminate them. Although this is not shown, it's stated when Stanley meets up with Roberts. Stanley witnessed the death of his family by hiding underneath a table, not being noticed. 13 years later detective Frank Colton and Officer Michael Sharp investigate files of previous convicts and one young hitman, never to be caught or ever convicted, to help them on their mission to capture and kill Paul Leonard with the help of Judge Roberts. Frank realizes that Stanley is the one who's never been caught and tries to trace him up. With the significant help Officer Michael Sharp, Frank Colton finds out about Stanley Colton's whereabouts. The two other convicts are already found and they await Stan's approval. Detective Colton approaches Stan without telling him that they are family. Stanley's attitude and heavy metal appearance shows that he has another life going. He continually disapproves stating "there were some things in life I chose to put behind me." Tracey, Stanley's on and off girlfriend, who's aware of his hitman and tough skills, encourages him to participate as she tells him that there's nothing wrong in receiving a little help. Stanley
